

“MEMBER GET A MEMBER CAMPAIGN”

Membership in the Louisiana Beekeepers Association (LBA) is a privilege, but more importantly, an obligation. Louisiana beekeepers can only help themselves and their industry by participating in dialogue that sets our state’s beekeeping policies. Anchored in a rich tradition of service, the LBA has always promoted a healthy, productive beekeeping industry. This can only be done through a strong state beekeeping organization. To accomplish this we need the help of more beekeepers. Our current membership consists of less than 50% of the state’s registered beekeepers. That has got to change if we are to remain a voice for Louisiana beekeepers.

You can help us and help yourself by joining the LBA today. More importantly you can recruit other beekeepers into joining the LBA. To help increase our membership we have launched a “MEMBER GET A MEMBER CAMPAIGN.” Simply talk to fellow beekeepers about their participation in their state beekeeping association through membership. In turn, ask their assistance and support in recruiting other LBA members.

Our membership application below contains a referral blank to be used to list the member that inspired a new member to join the LBA. An award awaits the individual that brings in the most new members up to our state meeting in December 2011. New members signed up after our December meeting will be counted in the 2012 membership campaign. This year’s award will be presented at our annual convention, which will be held in the Pineville area the first weekend in December. Contact any officer or board member listed in this newsletter if you need more information on promoting membership in the LBA.

Thank you for your support,
Randy Fair
LBA Membership Chairman
